NEW QUESTION: 1

The RTO and RPO objectives can be achieved using VMware HA.

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: B

Explanation:

The majority of applications do not require 100% uptime. VMware HA can be configured to restart workloads within a few seconds. The software can be configured to produce a fully automated DR and BC system. It is, however, not completely application aware and will depend on application requirements to be proved useful. From a VMware admin point of view, VMware HA is very important and worth exploring in the design process. Chapter 4, The Importance of vMotion, VMware HA, and Fault Tolerance
