- A. Use blob properties to prevent concurrency problems.
- B. Use blob metadata to prevent concurrency problems.
- C. Use blob SnapshotTime to prevent concurrency problems.
- D. Use blob leases to prevent concurrency problems.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

You can create a snapshot of a blob. A snapshot is a read-only version of a blob that's taken at a point in time.

Once a snapshot has been created, it can be read, copied, or deleted, but not modified. Snapshots provide a way to back up a blob as it appears at a moment in time.

Scenario: Processing is performed by an Azure Function that uses version 2 of the Azure Function runtime.

Once processing is completed, results are stored in Azure Blob Storage and an Azure SQL database. Then, an email summary is sent to the user with a link to the processing report. The link to the report must remain valid if the email is forwarded to another user.
